FROM THE PRESIDENT'S DESK

Beverly Death GFWC Maryland President

Dear Federated Friends,

I was very happy to see so many of you in attendance at the first GFWC Maryland Board of Directors Meeting on September 18th in Westminster. I know that you received lots of good information from our chairmen to take back to your clubs, to help in reporting your wonderful volunteer activities! And we all know these reports are due January 31, 2013.

Maryland was well-represented at the GFWC Southeastern Region Conference, held November 2-3, 2012 in Roanoke, VA. There were many informative workshops, and great skits, but best of all was the federation fellowship among all the dedicated clubwomen from other States in attendance.

This holiday season, our clubs and members will touch the lives of many people through their donations to needy families, to libraries, and to recovering cancer patients. There will be carols sung at nursing homes, and meals delivered to shut-ins and domestic violence shelters. There will be educational events in our communities, and we will be changing lives one smile at a time with Operation Smile donations.

Continue to have a bond of caring and friendship with your club members. When you have joy in your clubs, you will be happy to do the volunteer work in your communities that is so needed in the world today.

My family and I send our very best wishes for a wonderful holiday season. I hope your days will be filled with family and friends, and may you have a wonderful time with them. And remember... She Loves Me!

In Federation Friendship,

Beverly Death

GFWC Maryland President

FROM YOUR JUNIOR DIRECTOR

Mary Walton GFWC Maryland Director of Junior Clubs

Dear Fantastically Dedicated Clubwomen,

What a whirlwind of leaves, color and activities Fall became! As 2012 draws to a close and I start thinking about all of the holiday preparations coming quickly down the pike, I find myself pausing to remember and reflect on the days that have passed.

In 2012, we as clubwomen accomplished a lot—within our families, our clubs, our communities and our Federation. Together we have made a difference on so many levels, and for that we should all be supremely thankful. Many children in our communities found themselves with brand-new backpacks, stocked with school supplies so that they could start the year prepared and ready to learn. Food banks received boxes and bags of food to distribute to their patrons—when their pantries were completely bare. Fleece blankets were created and distributed, comfort bags were filled and given out, gardens were planted with pinwheels and the list truly goes on and on.

Director of Junior Clubs

We have continued to foster a love of the arts in middle and high school students across the state. In today's busy world, art can be the one thing that allows young adults the time to slow down and appreciate their surroundings—sometimes capturing them for our viewing.

As the cold begins to set in, children this winter will find themselves with new mittens, caps and scarves to protect them from the cold. Those fleece blankets will be used, and appreciated, more and more. As the food bank shelves empty, they will be stocked again. Sometimes it seems like it's an unending cycle, but we can't stop—making the difference in even one life makes it all so worthwhile.

The Maryland Juniors' Special Project over the next two years is to increase awareness about dating violence. On Saturday, February 2, 2013 at Mid-Winter Rally, we will kick-off Dating Violence Awareness and Prevention Month with a speaker and activities centered around this truly insidious trend. Did you know that nearly 1.5 million high school students nationwide experience physical abuse from a dating partner in a single year? According to the U.S. Department of Health & Human Services' Office of Adolescent Health, the national percentage of high school students who have been hit, slapped, or physically hurt on purpose by their boyfriend or girlfriend is 9%. In Maryland, that number jumps to 16%. Let's see what an impact we can have on those statistics here in Maryland over the next two years!

We are truly sowing the seeds of change by doing not only what work that needs to be done, but also living each day trying to accomplish something—and those collective "somethings" are powerful indeed. I am so grateful and proud to be a member of GFWC!

I can't wait to see the powerful changes we bring about in 2013 and I am happy you're there with me making it happen!

In Federation Friendship,

Mars

JUNIOR FALL CONFERENCE

October 6, 2012 in Pocomoke City, MD

The Maryland Juniors gathered for Junior Fall Conference on Saturday, October 6th at the Lynn Haven Baptist Church in Pocomoke City. The clubwomen of the GFWC Junior Woman's Club of Pocomoke City did a fantastic job hosting the meeting, providing a beautiful setting and an absolutely delicious lunch. The sky was blue, the sun was shining, and we were grateful for the time we got to spend together. Thank you ladies!

The theme of the meeting was Think Pink! in honor of Breast Cancer Awareness month, and many informational brochures were available to the meeting attendees. We've come a long way in breast cancer awareness and research; however, we must continue to press on to find a cure for this terrible form of cancer.

During our Junior business meeting, we received greetings from GFWC Maryland President Beverly Death. We were grateful that she was able to attend the meeting and delighted to have her with us, as well as GFWC Maryland President-Elect Brenda Bennett, GFWC Maryland Recording Secretary Kaye Shoemaker, and GFWC Maryland Honorary President 2000-2002 Jo Rousseau. Thank you, ladies, for your support of the Junior Membership!

Maryland Juniors collect "lots and lots" of items to donate to Samaritan Shelter.

We were honored to have *Ms.*Shelley Daniels, director of the Samaritan Shelter, as our guest speaker. The Samaritan Shelter is an incredible facility, helping many individuals and families in the community get back on their feet. They do this by coordinating the various services available, as well as holding the recipients accountable for their part in the process.

The day's Service Project was wonderful—lots and lots of items for their food pantry, and the shelter itself, were brought by the clubwomen in attendance.

We were fortunate to have a beautiful day to travel to the Samaritan Shelter and deliver the tableful of goodies in person. The shelter was such a warm place, and felt like home, with no "institutional" feeling about it at all. We were proud to see that the GFWC Junior Woman's Club of Pocomoke City has sponsored a room in the shelter, even though we were unable to see it. Fantastic job ladies!

The next gathering of the Junior Membership will be Mid-Winter Rally on February 2, 2013 (snow date February 9) at the Westminster Riding Club. I hope to see you there!

GFWC MARYLAND BOARD MEETING

Tuesday, February 19, 2013

The February Board of Directors Meeting, hosted by Baltimore District, will be held on Tuesday, February 19, 2013 at Columbus Gardens in Perry Hall, MD. (directions to be included in the Call). Snow date is February 28th.

Club reports will be distributed to State Chairmen at this meeting. Any State Chairman who is unable to attend should contact State Dean of Chairmen Brenda Bennett at 410-251-6798, to arrange to receive your reports.

Guest Speaker will be Patsy
Astarita, MSW, LCSW-C, Oncology
Supportive Care Services Coordinator/Community Liaison, Upper Chesapeake Health Cancer LifeNet
Program. With over 26 years experience as a clinical social worker and eight years in program development and management, Astarita has been a driving force at Upper Chesapeake
Health (UCH) in Bel Air, MD since August 2006. Having received her undergraduate degree from the University of MD Baltimore County (UMBC) and her Master of Social Work (MSW) from the University of MD, School of Social Work, Astarita holds a current license from the Maryland State Board of Social Work Examiners as a Licensed Certified Social Worker (LCSW-C).

For the past 16 years, Astarita, also certified as an Oncology Social Worker (OSW-C), has worked almost exclusively with those affected by cancer. When she joined UCH just over six years ago, she and a small team of nurses and social workers implemented a new supportive care services program under the Oncology service line at UCH called Cancer LifeNet. The Cancer LifeNet Program offers free-of-charge services, including individual and family counseling, integrative therapies, and many support groups, to all residents of Harford and Cecil counties, regardless of where they receive their cancer treatment. The Program's team now includes oncology nurse navigators, oncology volunteer navigators, and clinical oncology social workers.

A member of the Association of Oncology Social Workers, Astarita has also served as a member of the UCH Cancer Committee and the UCH Breast Advisory Board. She resides in Fallston, with her husband Rick and three daughters, and enjoys reading, going to the beach, and spending time with her family.

PARLIAMENTARY NOTES

Parliamentary procedure is a tool, not a weapon. The rules of Parliamentary Law are based on a regard for the rights of the majority, the minority, the individual, the absentee and all of these together.

Don't restrict your bylaws too much... every little thing doesn't have to be in there. Give yourself some breathing space. Bylaws are the rules by which a club functions. Make sure a parliamentarian looks over any changes before they are voted on. She can catch a trap you have unknowingly set for yourself and save you some heartaches.

It's just not proper to: Repeatedly banging the gavel... To open a meeting, the presiding officer gives one rap (tap) of the gavel and says, "The meeting is now in order," or "The meeting will come to order." A meeting should be business-like, but not "stuffy."

"Turning the meeting over to..."
The presiding officer is always in charge of the meeting. Someone, such as the program chairman, may be introduced (or presented, depending on their association with the group) who later "concludes the program," so the presiding officer may adjourn the meeting.

Accepting the treasurer's report...
It is neither accepted nor adopted...
after an opportunity for questions about the report, it is "placed on file." If it is "placed on file for audit" there must be an audit.

The secretary reading the minutes of the "last" meeting... The "last" meeting is the final meeting of the group as it dissolves. The proper term is "previous" meeting.

Long introductions... The person introducing the speaker is not "the speaker." The introduction should include the title and purpose of the talk, and the speaker's name is given at the end of the short introduction.

Have a quorum and make the number low... No business can be done without a quorum, except discussions and motions to fix the time and place to meet again or to adjourn. Why a small quorum? Say your bylaws state that you meet the first Wednesday of every month. On the first Wednesday in December you have the worst snow storm in years and only the bravest show up. That's why you need a low quorum.

Mary Thompson, Parliamentarian

GFWC SOUTHEASTERN REGION MEETING

November 2-3, 2012 at Hotel Roanoke in Roanoke, VA

Want to have a great time... reward yourself for all your volunteer work... visit with lots of other volunteers... enjoy great speakers and entertainment... get room service... have a maid make your bed and a man carry your bag who isn't your husband... and have great meals where you can discuss club activities with women who are working in their communities as hard as you are? Well, you missed the chance to do all these things— and more—if you didn't attend the Southeastern Region Annual Conference in Roanoke, VA on November 2-3, 2012.

The hotel was magnificent and the staff was always smiling and willing to assist us. Did I mention the skits and daily continental breakfasts?

Registration on Friday, November 1st went smoothly, meetings were held in a tiered auditorium, and business meetings were efficient—making this conference one of the best ever. Opening sessions contained all the formal opening activities, and a poignant remark was made by the North Carolina Director of Junior Clubs Crystal O'Neal... "Volunteers don't just work, they make it work."

Committee reports were brief and to the point. An announcement that GFWC Past-President Shelby Hamlin would be unable to join us due to health issues was a real disappointment. GFWC International President Mary Ellen Laister and President-Elect Babs Condon gave greetings.

Evening entertainment featured the Westside Steppers—"Keeping the Beat with Your Feet." They are a group of 5th grade honor students, from a local inner city school, who give up their recess twice a week to practice their art. These kids really hit their beat flawlessly. We learned that we were their first public appearance. Their advisor was an inspiration to the students—and the attendees—and lots of their parents were there to give moral support.

Exhibitors offered an array of items for shopping on Friday and Saturday. "Toss-Up Time" (a.k.a. workshops) were a time to gather with clubwomen from all six states of Southeastern Region to share ideas and projects. This made the workshops more informal and interesting. Speakers explained the Shot@Life United Nations Foundation Project to immunize children; the Appalachian Project to help women in all six of our states; and "Where in the World is Reporting Now?" presented by GFWC President-Elect Babs Condon (aren't we proud of our Babs?). All of this information will filter down to our clubs. We were honored to have Miss Virginia pay a visit and sing for us during Saturday's luncheon. We will be cheering for her in the Miss America Pageant.

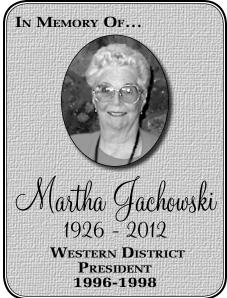

GFWC International President
Mary Ellen Laister invited all members to attend the *GFWC*Annual Convention in Hollywood, FL, June 30-July 2, 2013. Members of GFWC North Carolina invited everyone to next year's SER Conference on November 1-2, 2013 at the Twin City Marriott in Winston-Salem, NC. Needless to say, all of this year's attendees are already looking forward to next year!

Over 200 women were in attendance, including 22 members of GFWC Maryland. As SER President Susan Martin remarked... "TEAM stands for Together Everyone Achieves More." The 2012 SER Conference concluded with "A Collect for Clubwomen" and the joining of hands while singing "Let There Be Peace On Earth."

Kaye Shoemaker GFWC-MD Recording Secretary

IN MEMORY...

Many Thanks!

Rosemary Slacum wishes to thank all the district presidents, officers, and individual clubwomen who sent cards, notes, and emails to wish her well after her triple bypass heart surgery.

"I was truly touched by your thoughtfulness. The GFWC Maryland Federation of Women's Clubs is the best!"

MEMBERSHIP UPDATE

Dig Out Your Boots!

December, January and February • Recruitment Report due February 25, 2013

Fracuraging Floribility in Your Club

Encouraging Flexibility in Your Club

There is one thing we know there is just too little of, and that's time. One of the most common reasons why members leave a club is lack of time. Respect your members' time and they are more likely to make GFWC a permanent fixture in their lives.

- Streamline meetings to ensure they are as convenient and productive as possible to meet the needs and diversity of your club members.
- Consider member time commitments, and schedule meetings that accommodate as many members as possible.
- Email or mail the minutes and treasurer's report prior to the meeting, allowing members to review for corrections or additions at home.
- Make an agenda and stick to it. Keep reports brief and pertinent. Two hours should be sufficient time for a meeting.
- Allow time for discussion, but set a time limit on debate.
- Provide time either before or after the scheduled meeting for socializing and refreshments.
- Include programs that are interesting, stimulating, and short.
- Review the obligations required from your club members.
- Are members required to attend a certain number of meetings per year?
- Are they required to volunteer a certain number of hours, or participate in a certain number of programs or projects?

Participate & Track Seasonal Recruitment Campaigns:

As always, if you have any questions, concerns or just need a second opinion, your GFWC-MD Membership Chair is available by email or telephone. I can't wait to hear about your "Dig Out Your Boots" winter campaign. Please send narratives, pictures, and information gathered from December-February to Mary Beth Strickler, at sylvan@lavalecenter.com by February 26, 2013.

INVEST IN THE FUTURE...

Bettie M. Sippel Memorial Endowment Fund

When you or your club think of honoring a member, think Bettie M. Sippel Memorial Endowment Fund. It also makes a perfect birthday or Christmas gift for a friend, or a memorial. A card noting your contribution will be sent to the person of your choice.

The fund is named for Bettie M. Sippel, the first woman from Maryland to be GFWC President. It is actually a combination of two funds, "The Endowment Fund" and "The Bettie M. Sippel Memorial Fund." The two funds were joined in 1957 to simplify record keeping, and so the Bettie M. Sippel Memorial Endowment Fund was born.

A contribution to the Bettie M. Sippel Memorial Endowment Fund is an investment in the next 100 years of The Maryland Federation. Please send all contributions to the GFWC-MD treasurer. Make your check payable to MFWC Treasurer and write the fund name in the memo line.

A Mini-View of the GFWC Community Service Programs & Projects

Arts Program

Program & Partnership Chairman— Clara Dinterman • 301-898-0866

Art is essential to the quality of life! The GFWC Arts Community Service Program encourages members to promote and support arts activities in all communities. It is designed to inspire clubwomen to engage the creative ambiance within their lives. Create programs and projects that include music, dance, drama, theatre, and other arts-related areas, both traditional and innovative. The artistic experience can be outward reaching or for inner satisfaction. In other words, create an artistic experience that involves all programs and projects.

There are countless ways to incorporate art activities. Consider inviting local musicians to club meetings; donating tickets to local performances; planning a trip to local galleries, exhibits, or festivals; and volunteering as a group at local arts venues. See your GFWC Club Manual for a comprehensive list of ideas on how clubs may support the Arts Community Service Program.

For more than a century, education has been a cornerstone of GFWC beliefs and practices. In fact, Jane Cunningham Croly formed the General Federation of Women's Clubs "to support clubs throughout the nation and further their efforts at providing education, improved working conditions, health care, scholarships and other reforms." The GFWC Education Community Service Program works to improve literacy and education awareness in communities at home and around the world. Clubwomen are dedicated to promoting a commitment to literacy and lifelenge.

Clubwomen are dedicated to promoting a commitment to literacy and lifelong learning by:

• Encouraging members and others

- to foster and support educational opportunities for all ages in their communities.
- Promoting and supporting Epsilon Sigma Omicron, an honorary educational society open to all per capita paying GFWC members that provides clubwomen with a structured reading program for selfenrichment and personal growth.
- Educating members and others on ways to improve adult and youth literacy rates.
- Supporting libraries in their efforts to provide information, materials and educational opportunities.

Consider projects that help people overcome learning disabilities; support your library; promote literacy; mentor young people; and encourage lifelong learning. See your GFWC Club Manual for a comprehensive list of ideas on how clubs may support the Education Community Service Program.

PARTNERSHIPS

At this time the General Federation is negotiating with the American Library Association to form a partnership. Continue checking the GFWC "News & Notes" and the "GFWC Clubwoman" magazine for updates. At the present time there are no partners in the Education Program. There are $150.00 Literacy Grants available from GFWC. research, and treatment of disease; target personal development; address the issues of hunger, housing, and homelessness; and financial difficulties that affect the well-being of individuals, families, and communities.

The holidays are just around the corner and "Jack Frost" is nipping at our noses. As clubwomen, we know the winter months are hard times for so many people in our communities and their needs can be overwhelming. Fulfilling those needs may be a challenge to some, but not GFWC-MD clubwomen, because they are busy stocking the shelves of pantries, providing safe, warm housing for those in need, making donations of clothing to shelters, being secret Santa to many children and providing comfort and support to nursing home residents. We are clubwomen who know "it is the little things that make a difference."

PARTNERSHIPS

Canine Companions for Independence is the oldest and largest assistance dog program providing trained dogs for children, adults, and veterans with physical disabilities. It has a Wounded Veteran's Initiative. CCI has provided many assistance dogs to injured service men and women who are returning from the Iraq and Afghanistan wars.

Easter Seals provides services to ensure that all persons with disabilities have equal opportunities to live, learn, work and play. Easter Seals assists more than one million children and adults with disabilities and their families annually through a nationwide network of more than 550 service centers. Easter Seals is a new Partner this year.

Inside Knowledge: Get the Facts About Gynecologic Cancer Campaign is also a new Partner this year. The campaign educates women and health care providers about the five most common types of gynecologic cancer: cervical, ovarian, uterine, vaginal, and vulvar. Gynecologic cancer is any cancer that starts in a woman's reproductive organ. Each year in the United States, about 71,500 women are diagnosed with a gynecologic cancer and approximately 26,500 women die from one.

National Osteoporosis Foundation is the leading consumer and communityfocused health organization dedicated to the prevention of osteoporosis and broken bones, as well as the promotion of strong bones for life and reduction of human suffering through programs of public and clinician awareness, education, advocacy, and research.

Half of the world's population lives on less than $2.50 a day. Each day 21,000 children die due to poverty. GFWC encourages us to reach beyond our own communities and look for a way to make a global impact.

In most cases, GFWC members cannot physically be present to assist and make changes in countries around the world. Donations made through our partnerships reach those in greatest need. Consider raising cultural awareness; celebrating ethnicities; fundraising activities to support healthy child development; advocating for basic human needs such as food, water, clothing, and education; and promoting self-sufficiency.

Some ideas from GFWC are:

- Fund life-saving vaccines to help children all over the world.
- Participate in International cultural exchanges.
- Keep club members informed about major issues and challenges facing people in developing countries.
- Support the development of healthy and sustainable communities around the world.
- Ensure children have access to health, education, equality and protection.
- Provide support and encourage growth and sustainability by donating gifts such as livestock to families in need.
- Keep members updated on United Nations programs concerning women and children.
- Promote legislation in support of human rights around the world.

- Educate club members and local communities on home, road, and Internet safety.
- Provide programs, tools, and training.

• Create safer homes and communities through awareness.

Consider projects that address issues such as running for office; voter registration; elections; democracy; disaster preparedness; road safety; and supporting our military personnel. See your GFWC Club Manual for a comprehensive list of ideas on how clubs may support the Public Issues Community Service Program.

GFWC Signature Project: Domestic Violence Awareness and Prevention

Special Project Chairman—

Marge Shiflett • 301-865-7080 GFWC is a national leader in the fight to end domestic violence by raising awareness about this social issue. By supporting existing activities, working with various established programs, and initiating educational opportunities for club members and local citizens, the goal of the GFWC Signature Project:

Domestic Violence Awareness and Prevention is to increase awareness and prevention of the widespread occurrence of domestic abuse in communities across the nation.

GFWC members speak with one voice:

- In the effort to develop and influence federal and state legislation that positively affects the lives of domestic violence victims and their families.
- To protect the safety, security, and dignity of older citizens.
- To promote fundraisers which provide a positive and constructive solution to victims of abuse through the GFWC Scholarship program.
- To promote projects that support and cultivate work with national and local domestic violence and abuse organizations.
- With GFWC Signature Project: Domestic Violence Awareness and Prevention Program partners.

In addition to intimate partner abuse, the GFWC Signature Project: Domestic Violence Awareness and Prevention also works to combat child abuse, teen dating violence, and elder abuse. Elder abuse can take various forms such as physical, psychological, emotional, sexual, and financial abuse. It can also be the result of intentional or unintentional neglect and abandonment. Dating violence is a pattern of controlling and abusive behaviors of one person over another within a romantic relationship. It can include verbal, emotional, physical, sexual, and financial abuse. Dating violence can occur in any relationship. It has no boundaries and crosses all lines of race and socio-economic statuses.

GFWC Juniors' Special Project: Advocates for Children

Special Project Chairman—

Tricia Wagman • 410-876-7421
The GFWC Juniors' Special Project:
Advocates for Children is designed to enable all GFWC clubs to educate, advocate, and engage in projects concerning the well-being of children via health, social, and safety programs.

To raise awareness for GFWC's child advocacy efforts, we have declared the fourth week in October as GFWC Advocates for Children Week. Please encourage your clubs to do an activity to support children. Some ideas are: collect mittens and hats for a local Title 1 school, collect canned goods for a food pantry at a local school, read to children in a classroom, pre-school or Sunday school, host an arts and crafts night, and make donations to vaccinate a child. Consider your club's interests and Consider your club's interests and community's needs. Here are 10 steps to get you started:

GFWC-MD PRESIDENT'S SPECIAL PROJECT

Women's Health Issues

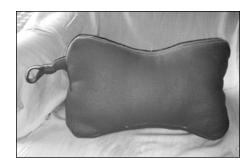

"Piglet" Pillow Project...

Do you believe that pigs can fly? If you were in attendance at the September GFWC-MD Board of Directors Meeting in Westminster, then you would be a believer. The "piglet" pillow project for post-surgical breast cancer patients got off to a flying start.

In the club presidents' packets, the directions for the "piglet" tail were unclear—each piglet will have its own "personality"—no two tails are alike.

- Cut strips of fabric at least 10" long and 2" wide.
- Fold the strip in half and tie a knot in its middle and pull tightly.
- Be sure you leave enough space in the loop of the tail so a person can fit their thumb through it.
- This "odd" shaped pillow will snuggle under the operative side and provide support, and the thumb holds the pillow in place.

Please attach a card to the piglet's tail with the name of your club. These pillows can be a challenge to sew, but will be well worth your efforts, and appreciated by the patients who receive them. Let's see how many pigs fly into convention!

February is American Heart Awareness Month and the Red Dress Campaign

The holidays will be a challenge for our 7 heart-healthy lifestyle changes, so get back on track after the new year, and I hope to see you wearing RED at the February GFWC-MD Board of Directors Meeting.

Julie Gibbs, Chairman

LEADERSHIP

Those club leaders who received my Leadership packet at the GFWC-MD Marketplace of Ideas on September 19, 2012 will recall that, in my written statement, I said that GFWC was in the process of revising its expanded version of the Leadership Advancement Guide. The expanded version is now available on the GFWC website, www.GFWC.org/ ClubManual, under Advancement Guides. It is twelve (12) pages long and expands on topics in the abridged version, which was in your Marketplace packet. I urge all club officers and leadership chairmen to download and print a copy of this expanded version. If anyone cannot obtain a copy, please let me know and I will get a copy to you.

Leaders are vital for the continued success of our clubs. Always remember, leaders are not just born, they can be created with support, care and mentoring from current leaders. Please contact me at anytime if I can be of assistance.

MONTGOMERY COUNTY DISTRICT REPORT

Service with a Smile

Tin Tin Nu Raschid. President Tin Tin and her husband immigrated to the U.S. in 1980. Since then, she has been busy in the floral industry. She owned two florist shops in Arlington and McLean, VA, and now runs a floral design business called "Rent-a-Florist," offering services for weddings and parties. Tin Tin has been a member of the GFWC Woman's Club of Bethesda, Inc. for eleven years. During this time she has attended many State Conventions, an International Convention, and a Southeastern Region Meeting, trying to educate herself and make new friends. Tin Tin is a "hands on" person—volunteering at the Thrift Shop, reading to kids at the Domestic Shelter, helping with "road cleanup" for Rotary, or serving spaghetti dinners at her club's fundraiser. Although this is her first position on the Montgomery County District Board, Tin Tin has served as president of nine other organizations. She was the first woman president of her Rotary club, and the first woman Rotary governor of Virginia in 1996-97. These past experiences will be of great help in her role as district president. Tin Tin is thankful to the members of Montgomery County District for bestowing her with this prestigious honor.

GFWC Woman's Club of Bethesda, Inc.

On a perfect fall day with a clear blue sky, much like the one on that infamous September 11th exactly eleven years before, the Woman's Club of Bethesda opened our new club year with a time of reflection for those lives lost or changed when our country was attacked at home. Our dear member/caterer shared her recollections of that day. She had just finished up the luncheon when she received a phone call from the commodore at the yacht club where she regularly serves dinner. She was asked to serve that dinner, instead. to the first responders at the Pentagon. She did indeed, serving groups of 25 men and women who would then go back to work sifting through the wreckage, looking for survivors. Mabel said she felt as if she were helping in that crisis, and indeed she was.

Our program that day were guests who brought new meaning to the word "speak". Two hospital dogs who "work" every day at the naval hospital visited, along with their human who shared stories of the impact and the differences that these dogs made on the lives of the wounded warriors they visit. These dogs seem to know exactly what each individual needs emotionally and—with noses, paws, and soulful eyes—do their best to provide it.

The past year ended with a celebration of the club's 100th anniversary. A lovely tea was held, which was attended by local and state officials and by officers from GFWC and GFWC-MD. This year began with a 99th celebration in honor of Mabel Sawhill. Not only is Mabel an inspiration as a member, but each month she provides the club with a delicious luncheon. She is dearly beloved by us all.

Much of our time and energies will again be devoted to the Shelter for Domestic Abuse. In September, we purchased back-to-school outfits, shoes, and backpacks for each child in the shelter. This month we will buy each child a warm winter coat. Many of these children leave their houses with only the clothes on their backs, as evidenced by the fact that some have only bedroom slippers to wear when they arrive. Some of our members read to the children on a weekly schedule and enjoy it as much as the children.

The Bethesda club provides funds for the mothers to go shopping at the Montgomery County Thrift Shop, both for themselves and for their children. Members also donate appropriate clothing for mothers and babies, even holding baby showers for the women who are pregnant. A number of our members work regularly at the thrift shop, in addition to donating gently used clothing there as well. Members also generously donate food items monthly to the Manna food program in our county.

The major fall fundraiser is the Big Bingo Bash. Members assemble prize baskets with intriguing titles, such as the Christmas Basket, Chocolate Basket, Wine Basket, Toy Basket, Spa Basket, etc. A silent auction will be held at the general meeting, and a Yard Sale and Spaghetti dinner are planned for the spring. These projects raise funds to support our philanthropies such as several scholarships to Montgomery College, Montgomery County Hospice, Heifer Project and so on.

A visit to the Air Force Monument followed by lunch in Alexandria and a visit to the Hampton House in Towson are several of the social outings our members enjoyed. The bridge group and the literary group meet monthly with lots of discussion and sharing of ideas.

As you all know, women's clubs give each member the rewarding chance to serve "hands on," a welcome way to make a difference in our respective communities.

GFWC Woman's Club of Chevy Chase, MD, Inc.

The current club season began with our traditional Open House Coffee in September, reuniting club members after the summer and welcoming prospective members. Outshining coffee and tea was the sumptuous food, much of which was from the kitchen of our 99-year-old member, Mabel Sawhill.

Our series of luncheon speakers began in October with Gail Russell Chaddock, political editor and congressional correspondent of "The Christian Science Monitor" and CSMonitor.com. After a series of assignments here and abroad for the "Monitor," she assumed her current post in 2001. November's speaker was Jane Sullivan Roberts, an attorney and the wife of Chief Justice John Roberts.

In October we also sponsored a Community Yard Sale, Treasure Trove, Used Book Sale and Mum Sale, the latest in a series of fundraisers initiated after our annual Antiques Show & Sale was suspended two years ago. As a club we are also emphasizing more hands-on charitable projects, such as making special dinners for Bethesda Cares, where members gather in the club's kitchen to prepare homemade food.

Next year will be a momentous one as WCCC celebrates its 100th anniversary. A gala dinner is planned for October 2013 with Jack Kelly of "The Washington Post" as guest speaker.

The club was founded by three women and dues were originally 25 cents a meeting, which rotated among various members' homes. The women were identified only as Mrs. (Husband's Name). It is said that they had to have the written permission of their husbands in order to incorporate the club. We've come a long way, baby!

The "Pie In The Sky" cookbook was published by the Chevy Chase Juniors to benefit their Bistro BoyZ programs.

GFWC Junior Woman's Club of Chevy Chase, MD, Inc.

Our "Pie In The Sky" cookbook, published August 2012, is more than just a collection of yummy recipes; it's a legacy of our wonderful club and community AND it supports the life-altering good works our members are doing in partnership with the National Center for Children and Families (NCCF). Printing costs were 100% covered by local businesses—so 100% of cookbook sales benefit our Bistro BoyZ programs.

Twenty-five of our members (Bistro GalZ) have gone through training to participate in our Bistro BoyZ programs hands-on. Now in our second year, we do a weekly grocery shopping trip in small groups with the BoyZ (ages 13-20)—followed by a trip to McDonalds—in addition to another evening each week spent cooking, planning our next menu, budgeting, and sharing the meal we prepared together.

Every Friday for the past year our members have signed up for Baking Buddies, baking and delivering goodies for the BoyZ to enjoy each continued on page 24—weekend. And when it comes time for one of the BoyZ to move on to independent living, we give him a Bistro Box full of kitchen supplies, including a myriad of gadgets, spices and utensils, pots and pans, and a George Foreman Grill.

While JWCCC continues to be involved in many other charitable works, we have chosen to focus on our Bistro BoyZ programs. We are committed to uniting our community around these young men displaced from their own families and neighborhoods—and reaching out to them as they pass through our own backyard. Local restaurants and businesses have stepped up with possible job opportunities for the BoyZ, and we are launching the community supported "BenefactorZ for Bistro BoyZ" Scholarship Fund for those young men interested in pursuing culinary arts as a career. Get your Z on! Visit our website: www.jwccc.org/pie-in-the-skycookbook. On Wednesday, October 17th, we held a cookbook-signing fundraising event at Chef Tony's Restaurant in Bethesda.

Emeritus Club of Montgomery County

The fall meeting of the Emeritus Club of Montgomery County was held at the home of our new president, Phyllis Kokus, in late September, with nine members in attendance. Past-President Kitty Cash's sister, Mary, was a visitor and enjoyed our pot-luck luncheon and camaraderie. Notes had been received from our two out-of-state members, Barbara Sobaski in Michigan, and Ruby Taylor Wyly in North Carolina, both of whom sent best wishes to all of their friends in Maryland. Our treasurer's report showed the club's annual support of Save the Bay, Maryland Youth Art, and the Bettie M. Sippel Memorial Endowment Fund, in addition to filling several ditty bags for a local woman's shelter. It was voted at this meeting to support the "Coats for Children" Program, and monetary donations from club members amounting to $70 were forwarded to the county chairman, Marge Shiflett. Members of this club are all pastpresidents of the Montgomery County and Prince George's County Federations of Women's Clubs, and are available to mentor and serve as advisors to the officers and chairmen of our District clubs. Our spring meeting will be held next May following the District meeting.

GFWC Woman's Club of Laurel, Inc.

In support of the GFWC Maryland President's Special Project for Veterans, we made and filled "Lots and Lots" of ditty bags (48) and took them to the Armed Forces Retirement Home in Washington, DC. The tote bags used were donated by a member—leftovers from a work project, which we were happy to "recycle" for this worthwhile state project. With a few modifications, they made perfect "ditty bags," which we stuffed with toiletries, puzzle books, notepads, pens, pencils, small picture frames, t-shirts, socks, books, cards, small knickknacks, and other assorted items intended to make life in a retirement home a little more pleasant. This is also our second year, thanks to member Polly Gould, of providing luminary kits to our members and the public to honor and acknowledge Gold Star mothers and families of fallen service men and women. We gave away 75 of them this year. We continue our monthly collection of "Treats for Troops" which will be sent to our armed forces abroad. Our clubwomen clip coupons to send to military families at a base in Germany.

In April, we won first place in GFWC-MD, and were featured in "The Washington Post," for our Community Improvement Project for the Governor's WellMobile program, run by the University of Maryland School of Nursing. This mobile health clinic serves the health care needs of the uninsured in Maryland.

We were honored to be featured with two other clubs nationwide in the 2012-2014 GFWC Club Manual for our Education Community Service Program of our Book Buddy Pillows project from 2010. Our club also donates to the Laurel Literacy Center, and this year purchased and distributed 120 books to local schools. Each year we offer scholarships for two local students to attend the Hugh O'Brien Maryland Youth Leadership Seminar. We subsequently invite these students to one of our meetings to share their experiences. We continue to collect "pennies for youth art" at our monthly meetings to donate to GFWC-MD for the state youth art contest, and we support and encourage local students to participate.

One night each month, a rotation of 10 members volunteer to serve hot dinners at Elizabeth House, a local soup kitchen. We have been supporting this cause for over 20 years.

We continued to clean our adopted road three times this year and received certificates from Prince George's County Department of Public Works for this effort.

In honor of October's Domestic Violence Awareness Month, we collected toiletries to go into gift bags, held by stuffed bears, and affixed with messages of support. These were donated to the Prince George's Family Crisis Center.

The Woman's Club of Laurel is represented at all Montgomery County District meetings and GFWC-MD meetings during the year. Our president and another member attended the 2012 Southeastern Region meeting in Roanoke, VA. Each spring we have a display table at the City of Laurel Mayor's Open House and Laurel's Main Street Festival, where several members spend the day sharing information about the club with members of the community. Our members also volunteer when needed at the District's Montgomery County Thrift Shop.

We are continually adding fundraisers. They include our annual fall yard sale, wrapping paper & holiday gift sale, fall mums and holiday wreaths. This fall we had the Green to Gold fundraiser and our club received a check for $415. Our largest fundraiser, Breakfast with Santa, is in its 34th year. In the spring, we plan to continue offering Stonefield soap, and adding the GFWC sponsored FlowerPower.

Our members enjoyed outside social events this year, including holiday parties, a trip to Longwood Gardens, an overnight shopping trip to Bethany Beach, and the Laurel and University Park House Tours.

At GFWC-MD Convention, we proudly accepted a Home Life award for our WellMobile support. Other awards received were: Fundraising, Women's History & Resource Center, and Tree-Mendous Maryland. Member Sandee Leibson received third place for a photo entry. At the Montgomery County District Meeting in May, member Jennifer McLaughlin was installed as first vice-president, and Diane Hill as recording secretary for 2012-2014.

GFWC Laytonsville Woman's Club

Our October 1st meeting was held at Laytonsville Town Hall and open to the public. This was because our speaker from the League of Women voters explored important Maryland issues—gaming sites, non-citizen tuition rates, civil marriage protection laws, and other concerns.

Laytonsville Woman's Club has been a volunteer organization in the town for more than 40 years. We help host town functions such as the annual parade and town picnic.

We continually support scholarships, Hospice Caring, Gaithersburg and Damascus Help, the Chesapeake Bay Foundation, Montgomery College and our own Laytonsville Historic Center. We plan to add our support this year to the Montgomery County Thrift Shop.

GFWC Metropolitan Community Club of Montgomery County

September 19th marked the formal beginning of the 2012-2013 club year for the GFWC Metropolitan Community Club (MCC) of Montgomery County. Our club members selected 12 charities for this year, in addition to continuing to help special-needs families with clothing for their children or medical expenses throughout the year.

The selected charities' missions range from providing basic needs to the poor of Montgomery County, to supporting women's health and economic development in thirdworld countries. Throughout the year, members volunteer with these charities by collecting and donating food to Manna Food Center, volunteering at the Montgomery County Thrift Shop in Bethesda, or working directly with needy individuals or families, especially during the holidays. A list of this year's selected charities can be found at the MCC webpage: www.gfwcmd.org/clubs/montgomeryco/ccmoco.html.

MCC sponsors a number of fundraisers during the year. This fall, the club held its annual Craft Show on Saturday, October 27th at Potomac Presbyterian Church, with a preshow on Friday October 26th. MCC invited members from other clubs and their families to attend this event, with over 20 vendors selling quality items, such as jewelry, clothing, children toys, and delicious specialty food items.

For the past 30 years, a major fundraiser has been the sale of Christmas wreaths. Great care is taken to assure that the wreaths are healthy and full, are delivered early in the season (shortly after Thanksgiving), and are competitively priced. Based on the quality of the wreaths and the charities that are supported by the proceeds, the club has many loyal customers who only buy their Christmas wreaths from MCC. Last year alone, over 390 wreaths were sold, bringing in over $2305.00 in profit for our charities.

An important club goal is the development of friendship among the members. These friendships are developed through various group activities sponsored by the club such as: weekly bowling, regular golf outings, monthly book discussions, frequent enrichment activities such as visits to museums, an annual tea, and day trips to cultural or historic sites. As a result, many strong and lasting friendships have developed. Over the past few years, the club has seen a steady increase in membership. New members bring new ideas and enthusiasm to MCC, which has enriched the experience for all members.

GFWC Silver Spring Woman's Club, Inc.

The expression "Life turns on a dime" is so true. In August we lost yet another dear member. We were also busy sending healing thoughts to other ladies who had various surgeries. Given these events, we are ever thankful for all in our wonderful circle of family, friends, and our sisters in GFWC.

Our first vice-president continues to provide us with outstanding programs. Last April, we celebrated our 73rd Anniversary with the Glen Echoes, a very talented Barbershop Quartet. In May, Linda Romano thrilled us with a presentation on flower arranging. Her masterpiece was on display at the Montgomery County District May meeting. Steve Flynn entertained us with Frank Sinatra songs at our June luncheon at Argyle Country Club. Michelle Stawinski installed our new officers for 2012-2014, using a global theme. Many thanks to Michelle for giving up her day to be with us. Two members of the Benevolent Care Fund from Riderwood introduced their calendar during our October meeting. If you read the articles in "The Washington Post" or "Gazette," you will know that a group of very brave ladies bared not QUITE (but almost) all to pose for this very wonderful project.

Our second vice-president gathered the troops to throw a very successful Card Party and Benefit last May, and another on Halloween. Silver Spring ladies provided lunch, door prizes and a day of playing bridge (or any other game you care to play). Members and non-members were invited. Proceeds benefitted the Montgomery College Scholarship Fund.

On the third Wednesday of March and April we hold our Community Service Meeting/Pot Luck that continues to provide entertainment and crucial information. In March, a representative from Maryland RELAY and Easter Seals spoke about a program to deliver phones to individuals with various handicaps. In April, Donald Call, from Elderease spoke about his organization to help our seniors. In May, we went to Olney Theatre and enjoyed "Thirty-Nine Steps," a Hitchcock inspired thriller.

Duplicate Bridge parties continue to provide fun and an opportunity for members and non-members to play bridge each month. Again, proceeds go to the Montgomery County Scholarship Fund.

If you ever visit the Montgomery County Thrift Shop you would be surrounded by articles of every kind: clothing, housewares, books, etc. The prices are great, especially on half-price days. Silver Spring ladies take turns as part of a team of five, serving as clerks or cashiers, each second Thursday.

Last May, Silver Spring Woman's Club co-hosted the Montgomery County District Meeting with Suburban Women's Club. It was an enjoyable opportunity to collaborate.

In the past, we have supported a local woman's shelter. We hope to continue to provide supplies and care to those in need.

While our club membership is not as large as it was a few years ago, our ladies work extremely hard to provide help to those in our community who need a step-up.

GFWC Suburban Woman's Club of Montgomery County, MD, Inc.

Suburban Woman's Club is in our 53rd year and we were pleased to have charter members attend our September meeting. We have had speakers at our meetings this year which included the director of Team River Runners for Wounded Warriors, a slide presentation on the Canadian Northwest, and our March speaker talked about her experience as a resident of a Japanese Internment Camp as a child during World War II. Other meetings featured a program on exercise, a potluck luncheon, a workshop making nursing home favors, enjoying luncheons in May and September, and Holiday parties in December. Our Breakfast Bunch has turned into a casual Brunch meeting, and we have a free movie fan club.

We made hospital gowns for Operation Smile, and contributed clothing and toiletries to abused persons shelters and a T.A.P. organization to help recently released prisoners get back in the workforce. We made Piglet Pillows for breast cancer patients. Our donations to organizations included a Montgomery College Scholarship, Abused Persons Program, Team River Runners for Wounded Warriors, Montgomery County Hospice, Guiding Eyes for the Blind, HOBY, Suburban Woman's Club's Annual Installation Meeting at Columbia Country Club (L to R): President Hazel Sutherland, Vice-President Margie Wood, Recording Secretary Peggy Mason, and Treasurer Rene Griffith.

Youth Art, "The Maryland Clubwoman" magazine, GFWC Maryland website and the Bettie M. Sippel Memorial Endowment Fund.

Members are encouraged to register with Giant Foods and Safeway for A-Plus Bucks to go to local schools. For fundraising activities, we sell Giant Gift Cards, Entertainment Books, and Christmas wreaths. We also had a Marathon Bridge group. A portion of our dues is dedicated to charitable projects. We receive interest from the Marjorie Greenleaf Commemorative Fund to be used for special projects.

Suburban club members attended GFWC-MD and Montgomery County District meetings and serve on State and District committees. Kitty Cash, our nominee for 2011 Outstanding Maryland Clubwoman, was recognized at the 2012 April Convention.

The Montgomery County Thrift Shop is staffed by our volunteers during the year. Kitty Cash served as president of the association for two years and Mary Jo Rodgers and Eugenia Evans served as members. Montgomery County District receives a share of the profits from this activity.

We welcome guests and hope to increase our membership this year.

University Park Woman's Club, Inc.

The University Park (UP) Woman's Club launched the 2012-2013 year by announcing a number of partnerships that focus on community development and outreach. The October program recognized Domestic Violence Awareness Month and the GFWC Signature Project. The speaker was Ajourae Brown from the House of Ruth of Beltsville. The club donated personal hygiene items to the House of Ruth to support domestic violence victims. Earlier this year, the club donated first-night kits and children's clothing to the Prince George's County Domestic Violence Shelter. The UP Woman's Club has supported local domestic violence prevention facilities for many years.

The club will co-sponsor a community Flu-Shot Clinic. The clinic, provided by Adventist HealthCare, is a partnership with the Town of University Park, the UP Community Emergency Response Team, Riverdale Presbyterian Church, and the Woman's Club. The UP Woman's Club is partnering with the Town of University Park and the UP Historical Society to establish a permanent recognition for veterans of the community. This fall, the club will be working with the Town of University Park to refurbish a public space garden in the community. and the club will collaborate with a representative of the town council to explore the possibility of becoming involved in the Village movement, a movement to assist residents with successful aging-in-place.

The club is also preparing for a busy holiday season. Our 19th annual Candlelight Holiday House Tour will be held Friday, December 14th from 7 to 10 p.m. This is the major fundraiser for the club. A Holiday Boutique will be held in conjunction with the House Tour from 6:30 to 10 p.m. On December 16th the club will sponsor the Holiday House Decorating Contest, which recognizes neighborhood homes for their outstanding outdoor décor. Each year, the club adopts a family from the local domestic violence shelter by providing clothing, gifts, and food for the holidays. The club's December meeting will be a holiday luncheon for members and guests. A highlight of the holiday luncheon is music provided by the Silver Belles, a singing group composed of club members and directed by club member Amelia Roberts. The Silver Belles were formed in 2010.

EPSILON SIGMA OMICRON (ESO)

Audrey in Wonderland

Well ladies, here we are again. This past winter I lost two very dear ladies, my cousin Rosemary (ALS) and our own Nancy Llewellyn, each was a voracious reader and an excellent resource for this column.

I'd like to take a minute to honor Nancy, one of MFWC's great ladies, by quoting from her last letter: "I believe this year I'll be a 50 year member of GFWC and a 28 year member of ESO. I'd like to finish Century XXIII (23) by the April GFWC Maryland Convention, if I can." Without Rosemary and Nancy, my reporting will never be the same, or as easy. I wish I could tell them how much I relied on their guidance and recommendations.

I was very surprised to find myself re-reading Pearl Buck's "Good Earth" this winter. How hard life was in early China. Kwang Lo and his wife O-Lan pass from middle class to extremely poor and on to the land of milk and honey, struggling all the way.

Suzanne Collin's "Hunger Games" Trilogy starring Katniss and Gale. I can't believe how much I enjoyed these books. At first I backed off from reading them but found the books well written and the subject matter extremely well handled.

Met a new friend, Lisa Scotoline. One of her heroines (in 4 or 5 books) is attorney Mary DiNunzio from South Philly. Aside from exciting reads, I loved Mary's very Catholic, very Italian family who had the pictures of the "trinity" on their dining room wall—JFK, Frank Sinatra and the Pope!

"You are the Love of My Life" by Susan Richards Shreve. In 1973 Lucy leaves her married lover and returns to the Washington, DC home where she had discovered her father's body after he committed suicide. Her Mother told her, "Never tell anyone who your father was. He's dead. That's all a person needs to know."

And really good—"Double Cross" by Ben Macintyre—contains gripping stories from the perspective of a remarkable group of spies who tricked the Nazis in an astounding D-Day deception. "People" magazine says, "Puts other spy tales to shame."

For fun—"The Years of Learning Dangerously" by Quinn Cummings. A former child star's hilarious, insightful chronicles of her family's headfirst jump into home schooling.

Please read, "The House I Loved" by Tatiana de Rosnay. And I quote, "A mesmerizing look at how the homes and neighborhoods we occupy hold not only our memories but our secrets as well."

Charlotte Rogan's "The Lifeboat." The year 1914, 39 people in a lifeboat. Not everyone will make it. Overcrowded, provisions running out, the weakening desperate passengers begin to quarrel and turn on each other. The group divides into two factions, one led by headstrong sailor Mr. Hardie, the other by charismatic matron Mrs. Grant. Eventually everyone finds themselves in water up to his neck...

Now, who else was disgusted with the book, "Once Upon a Secret— My Love Affair with JFK?" Nineteen years old and having relations with a married man and servicing his friends and family! Come on, weren't we just a bit more savvy at that age. I found just the premise of the book insulting. And no, I didn't read it!

And who read E.L. James' trilogy beginning with "Fifty Shades of Gray"? I bet you didn't discuss that one at Book Club!

I close with a must-read, "Home-front" by Kristin Hannah. Love is a battlefield—as is motherhood and, of course, combat. The casualties of war are shown through the eyes of Jolene, a mom and a Black Hawk pilot who returns from Iraq injured, angry and haunted. This book is a stirring, inspiring celebration of heroism in its many incarnations. Sadly, this is an extremely timely story. And, "Soldier Dogs" by Maria Goodavage. A moving portrait of the loyal, courageous, furry warriors who truly are Man's Best Friend.

Make sure your club distributes copies of this year's ESO recommended reading. This winter we're supposed to get the snow we missed last winter and then some. What better time to read and simply enjoy life. I beg you to get a book group started in your club.

Until we meet again...

Audrey Batchelor, ESO Chairman

LEGAL ISSUES FOR CLUBS... TAX EXEMPT STATUS

Many clubs have elected in the past to be federally tax-exempt—think 501(c)(3)—or 501(c)(4) which is not exempt from paying sales tax when you purchase items for your club. Some of those clubs are under the mistaken impression that once you obtain the tax-exempt status, you keep it as long as the organization exists. That is far from the case.

CALL TO CONVENTIO

Beginning in 2006, the IRS requires all tax-exempt organizations to "check in" by filing with the IRS. Clubs with annual gross receipts of $50,000 or less can file a 990-N e-Postcard or a full Form 990 or Form 990-EZ. Clubs with annual gross receipts in excess of $50,000 MUST file a Form 990 or Form 990-EZ. Failure to file for three consecutive years will result in the automatic revocation of your tax-exempt status. There is a fee and/or fine when you don't submit your reports.

According to the IRS, the 990-N e-Postcard is easy to file, though it appears that it must be done online. The information you need is your EIN (employer identification number), the tax year, the legal name and mailing address for the club, any other names the club uses, the name and address of the president, web address (if you have one), and to be able to confirm that the gross receipts for the prior club year were $50,000 or less, and that the club has not "gone out of business."

If your club has gross receipts in excess of $50,000 and you are a 501(c)(3) or 501(c)(4), you must file either a Form 990 or Form 990-EZ. Obviously, this is a much more complicated process.

Whichever form you are required to submit, it is due on the 15th day of the fifth month following the end of your club year. That means that if your club's fiscal year ends June 30, your forms are due November 15.

If you close your books on May 31, your forms are due October 15.

ALL TO CONVENTIO

The good news is that if your club has been revoked because you failed to file your 990-N and you get your club's forms in to the IRS by December 31, 2012, the reinstatement will be much easier and less expensive, AND the IRS will reinstate you as of the automatic revocation date. That means that it will appear as though you never missed a filing deadline. The forms needed to reinstate are different for 501(c)(3) and 501(c)(4) clubs and depend on your club's gross revenues. Clubs interested in this IRS program are encouraged to contact one of these IRS employees: Ms. Rosenbaum at (202) 622-6070, Mr. Quesenberry at (202) 622-1124, or Mr. Giuliano at (202) 283-8917.

Clubs who have questions, or need assistance in filing out forms may also contact GFWC-MD Corresponding Secretary Michelle Stawinski.
